

Rockwood Summit Student Expectations 2018-2019

All students and parents should review the RSD 2018-2019 Student Discipline and Consequences Handbook regarding specific policies and practices regarding student behavior expectations.

Attendance

A commitment to excellence requires a commitment to attendance and attentiveness within the school setting. Our staff is committed to ensuring that students are provided the best academic support and instruction each and every day. To take advantage of the opportunities provided in the school setting it is vital students be in attendance and ready to learn each and every day.

District Attendance Policy

Regular student attendance is key in student success. Therefore, students are expected to be present at school daily.

- Excessive student absences, excused and unexcused, will result in a conference with your administrator and/or counselor.
- Students with excessive absences may be asked to provide documentation, i.e. medical or legal notes.

Tardies

Students are expected to be on time for class. Failure to do so will result in disciplinary action per semester, per hour.

- 5th & 6th tardy will result in 1 lunch detention each
- 7th tardy will result in 2 lunch detentions each
- 8th tardy will result in 1 day In School Suspension
- 9th tardy and after will result in suspension progression

Truancies

Students are expected to be in attendance for each class. Failure to do so will result in disciplinary action.

Unexcused absences are considered truancy.

- 1 thru 3 hours truant in a day will result in one lunch detention per hour
- 4+ hours truant will result in ISS

Students with multiple truancies to a class will have the following progression:

- 1st Truancy to a class is a detention
- 2nd Truancy to a class In School Suspension
- Repeat truancy will result in suspension progression

Lunch Detentions

Detentions can be assigned during a student's lunch period. Students assigned lunch detention will need to bring or buy a sack lunch in advance and report to the Academic Lab (410). Student cell phones will need to be turned in for the duration of lunch detention in accordance with the Ac-Lab expectations. Students assigned detentions are expected to attend. Failure to do so will result in disciplinary action.

- Initial missed lunch detention will result in reassigning a lunch detention
- Subsequent missed detentions will result in ISS and/or suspension progression

Cell Phones

NOTE: Individual instructors can opt to adopt more restrictive rules regarding the use of electronic devices in their respective classrooms. Students in grades 9-12 may possess and use electronics/portable communication devices at school in accordance with the conditions set below:

- Electronic/portable communication devices may be used on school premises before school begins, during passing periods and at lunch. Use of these devices on school premises at other times during regular school hours is prohibited, except that use of these devices in the instructional areas may be approved by the teacher on a limited basis for instructional purposes only.
- Use, display, or activation of these items at times other than described may result in up to three days in-school suspension. Repeated offenses could result in increased consequences. If such items are used in a way to substantially disrupt the school environment, the student may be suspended for up to ten (10) school days out-of-school with a possible recommendation up to 180 school days or expulsion.

- Consequences
 - 1st referral to administrator- 1 detention
 - 2nd referral - 2 detentions
 - 3rd referral - 1 day ISS
 - 4th referral and up - parent conference, ISS progression
- If a student is asked to hand over a device to a staff member and refuses, the student will receive additional consequences for insubordination.

Dress Code

In addition to the Rockwood School District Policies on dress, Summit expects students to dress in a way that is not a disruption or distraction to the educational environment. This includes the exclusion of any drug, alcohol, or smoking; sexual references or connotations; and/or any hate speech. Undergarments are to be covered at all times.

Before School and After School Expectations

Students who arrive early may come into the building. The building hours are 7:40 to 3:45. On late start Monday's students cannot enter before 9:15am and must remain in the Commons until 9:30am.

Students who must wait after school for their bus or their ride must go to the Commons. Students who are not in a supervised activity or with a staff member should leave campus by 3:45pm. Unsupervised students will face discipline consequences.

Once students have arrived on campus, they are not permitted to leave without parental and administrative permission.

Failure to comply with before or after school expectations will lead to:

- Verbal warning/parent contact
- Suspension of after school privileges
 - Further instances will be considered insubordination.

Student Parking Lot Violations

Students will receive discipline consequences for committing the following student parking lot violations including, but not limited to:

- Not parking in their assigned parking spaces, parking their vehicles illegally
- Not displaying parking permit hang tag on rearview mirror
- Parking in student parking lot without purchasing a parking permit

Students will receive a note on their window and will receive the following discipline consequences:

- 1st offense - Warning
- 2nd offense - $5.00 fine with Office Referral for Insubordination
- 3rd offense - $10.00 fine with Office Referral for Insubordination
- 4th offense - $20.00 fine with Office Referral for Insubordination
- 5th offense and up to 10 days ISS or OSS will be assigned

Some school offenses (such as excessive tardies/truancies/reckless driving in parking lot) may result in temporary or permanent revocation of permit without a refund.

Technology Devices

Rockwood School District issued technology devices and services (Gmail, Google Drive, etc.) are the property of the school district and can be searched in accordance with district policy. Personal devices that access or utilize district resources (i.e. school internet, etc.) are also subject to search per district policy.

Social Probation

In 2018-2019, students who continually violate school policies may be subject to "social probation" prohibiting them from attending school functions, such as dances or athletic events (as spectators), for a period of time.

Tobacco and Imitation Tobacco Products

The use or possession of any tobacco, vaping or imitation tobacco products is strictly prohibited at school events or on school property. Students in violation will be suspended for three days on the first offense. Discipline will increase on subsequent instances.
